PMC Guiding Values: Integrity, Dignity, Professionalism, Team Work, Quality

Quality: Our patients and residents have just one life and one body, and they place it in our hands when they come to us for service. Each PMC representative is expected to provide the highest quality care possible. Quality is a minimum standard, a choice, it is never an accident, and is the result of making calculated choices based on professional and personal skills which will bring about the most precise and acceptable outcome.
