Mayor and Assembly,

It sounds like the mayor is voting against the advice of our emergency responders on the emergency ordinance on a "petition" that according to him 400 people have signed. Who are these people? Are they registered voters of Petersburg? We have over 1000 people who vote so that means you have over 600 registered voters of Petersburg who did not sign whatever that "petition " is.

I hope you support public safety over the fears of people who don't trust government. Aren't you our local government? We've always had an emergency ordinance under the City of Petersburg government and it has only been activated a handful of times. Once for a landslide and several times of extreme water shortages.

Stand up for public safety. The safeguards are in place and the buck stops with you. You represent all 3500 of us.
